Dear students

You are invited to join us on Friday 19 October – as Swinburne's Faculty of Business and Enterprise hosts the launch of renowned futurist Professor Richard Slaughter's anticipated new book "To see with Fresh Eyes".

Professor Slaughter will be present to launch the work and this is a unique opportunity to engage with a leading figure in the foresight community.

The launch will include time for Q&A and provides scope for guests to discuss the challenges and opportunities available for foresight practitioners.

The event is sponsored by the Faculty of Business and Enterprise and is a wonderful opportunity to network with the larger Swinburne strategic foresight community over food and drinks. We hope you can join us.

Date: Friday 19 October 2012
Time: 5:00pm (for 5:30pm) – 7.00pm
Venue: AGSE 207, AGSE Building, Swinburne University (cnr Wakefield and William Streets)
RSVP: by Friday 12 of October to piel@swin.edu.au

About Professor Slaughter

Richard is an internationally recognised futurist / foresight practitioner, author, editor, teacher and innovator who has worked with a wide range of organisations in many countries and at all educational levels. He has built a reputation through futures scholarship, educational innovation, strategic and social foresight and the identification of a knowledge base for futures studies (KBFS). He is Director of Foresight International, Brisbane. (<http://www.foresightinternational.com.au>)

After stints at several universities he was invited by the VC of Swinburne University in Melbourne to set up the Australian Foresight Institute. During 1999 to 2004 he was Foundation Professor of Foresight at Swinburne and pioneered new approaches to advanced foresight training and research.

I hope to see you at this exciting event.

Yours sincerely,

Dr Peter Hayward
Program Coordinator, Master of Strategic Foresight
